32) It is regretted that there is no room available to spare for the above purpose. The existing accommodation in Bangalore City is not enough to meet the ordinary needs of the Railway.

33) Due to increase in the volume of parcels, passenger and other traffic, the existing accommoda tion is insufficient and we have had to resort to improvised accommodation. Thus, a room which is farther away from the station and was used as Stores when the old Workshop was in existence, has been converted into an Outwards Parcel Room though it is inconvenient.

34) In this connection it may also be stated that the Military department wanted a room in the -- Bangalore City Station urgently for doing the work as far as Military traffic is concerned, which our Enquiry Officer is doing at present. As no room could be spared, they were asked to put up a temporary structure of non-inflammable material adjoining the Enquiry Office room.

35) No room can therefore be spared for the officers of the Evacuee Reception Committee at Bangalore Cit Station

It would cause inconvenience to these passengers if the members of the Ecacuees' Reception Committee are allowed the use of the waiting rooms. We have already refused a requisition for accommodation at Bangalore City from the Military Department who made separate arrangements by putting up a temporary structure adjoining the Enquiry office room and the granting of permission to the Committee now, is sure to create an inconvenient precedent.

54) I am not therefore in favour of the proposal to permit the Committee members to use the I & II class waiting rooms at Bangalore City while on duty.

With reference to your letter No. 1308 of the 11th instant, asking me to attend the Meeting at the Residency to-day, at 11-30 A.M., I write to state that I attended it.

2. I was asked how many evacuees we would be able to accommodate in the City. I requested them to give us an idea of the number of evacuees for whom we were expected to provide accommodation in the City. The Hon'ble the Resident said that we would have to provide for as many as possible and suggested that we might be ready to receive 2,000. I told him that so far, we had selected buildings round about Bangalore and that I would make out a list of buildings available in the City to accommodate evacuees from Madras and let him know the extent to which we could help in the matter. I am making out a list of Chatrams, Schools and Hostels and I shall submit a report to Government indicating the extent to which we can assist them, having regard to the need for accommodating our own people who may have to be accommodated in case of an air raid.

3. The Hon'ble the Resident suggested that a Committe might be formed on the lines of the one functioning in the Civil & Military Station, to deal with evacuees fro out-side. He also remarked that a representative

The buildings may be permitted to be taken possession of immediately as it may take sometime to provide necessary sanitary arrangements and additional water facilities. The remaining chattrams may be reserved for use of the local people, in case of air-raid.

KRL

INDIAN EVACUEE RECEPTION COMMITTEE

From F. Harvey Esq.,
Chairman,

OFFICE:
COMMERCIAL STREET,
BANGALORE (CANTT.)
17th April 1942

The Secretary to the Mysore Govt.
Public Offices, Bangalore City.

Dear Sir : RE: ACCOMMODATION FOR EVACUEES.

For your information we beg to state that after this Committee was formed early March to deal with Indian and other Eastern nationals from war zones, we wrote to the President, Bangalore City Municipality asking if his Municipality proposed to do anything in the way of helping with that matter. His reply dated 25th March stated that at the Managing Committee meeting of 19th March the matter had been discussed and it had been resolved that the Municipality was not in a position to undertake such work.

This Committeee regretted such a decision and had perforce to contact evacuees who had taken refuge in Mysore State by letter (the addresses being kindly forwarded to us by the Mysore Police) in order to offer them financial aid, advice, and any other help needed.

Now, when the migration from Madras is bringing large numbers of refugees ~~from Bangalore~~ to Bangalore (Cantonment and City) we hesitate to ask Bangalore City Municipality again, at this juncture, if it be prepared to help with this very necessary humanitarian work, in case we again get a refusal.

The Committee, therefore, decided it was advisable to write to you re: this matter, as your representative, Mr. Narain Rao, Deputy Commissioner, was present at last Sunday's meeting at the Residency when the matter of accommodation for evacuees from Madras was discussed and who promised to furnish particulars as to what accommodation was possible at the City schools and colleges. The Committee will be glad to have such information at an early date, and also suggests that the City choultries, hotels and boarding houses etc. might also be listed so that there might be comprehensive list of places for the emergency rush.

Our workers (Reception Officers) at the Cantonment station are finding that many of the refugees proceed to the City, and doubtless many of such have no accommodation to go to, and will be plaved in great difficulty in consequence.

We therefore beg to suggest that the City should have a similar organisation as this formed working in close collaberation with us, and with R.O. workers to meet trains both from Madras and Bombay. Mr K.T.Acharayya, who has been very useful as a voluntary worker for us at the City Railway Station, being capable and enthusiastic, might be engaged by the City organisation as Chief Reception Officer.

We enclose a rough plan of our organisation in Cantonment, and copy of our instructions for our Station R.O.'s.

All expenses are being met by the Government and the R.O.'s and other workers paid. Yours faithfully,

Chairman, F. Harvey

REFUGEE ORGANISATION PLAN

For the Indian Refugee Committee we have the following arrangements.

Lists of accommodation in choultries, schools, etc.

10 trained Reception Officers at Cantonment R.S. meeting all trains, and asisting refugees as per attached instructions to R.O.'s

For large transport the assistance of the Commissioner of Police, motor buses, etc.

We are going into the question of food, cooking etc.

Our office is also dealing with relief (financial, clothes etc.).

At the station we have banners 10 X 2 feet explaining in English and Tamil that Madrasis wanting a place to stay must see "R.O." at station.

We have issued distinctive "R.O." arm-bands to our station Reception Officers. Sample enclosed.

We have issued these same distinctive arm-bands to the Head Constable and his four men who were specially sent to assist in refugee work.

In the morning the chief R.O. must inform all his assistant R.O.'s the probable arrival of first train.

Four men only must do the night duty at present, so that the men get proper rest.

They must have some means of communication with each other, either by use of messengers or by telephone.

We have one man, Mr. K. T. Acharya, of Ranga Vilas, near Majestic Cinema, as a voluntary worker at the City Station.

We would draw your attention to the difficulty of working at City station on account of the extremely intense blacked out conditions.

[illegible]

INSTRUCTIONS FOR RAIL RECEPTION STAFF

(1) When trains come in, move in one body from that part of the train opposite the main exit, and move towards each end, breaking up into groups according to the length of the train covered. If the train comes in at the opposite platform, then act similarly with the exit by the bridge as the central point.

(2) Ask all passengers there they are going, including European and Anglo-Indian. (We must be of help to all.) See that City, Bombay, and northern bound passengers remain in the train.

(3) Those bound for Cantonment must alight.

(4) Ask them if they have a place to go to. If they say "yes" then leave them alone. If they say "no" then ask them to stand still on the platform beside their luggage.

(5) Military families must be referred to their own military reception officers. If no military R.O. is present, refer the matter to the chief Indian R.O.

(6) Tell the remaining refugees who have no place to go to, if they have luggage in the brake-van, to proceed there, leaving someone in charge of their compartment luggage, taking their luggage receipt with them, find the guard or the station parcel officer, and personally receive their brake-van luggage. On no account can brake-van luggage be taken away without production of this ~~RR~~ receipt and consent of guard and/or station parcel officer.

(7) Collect each party's luggage together in one place. Now you have luggage and party of refugees together.

(8) After the whole train has been cover d in this way, collect coolies, trucks and put luggage, in every case with the refugee, outside to the road.

(9) Find out whether they can pay for transport, and if so, direct them to jutkas or other conveyances, with luggage in other carts or jutkas, etc. Always remember to see that luggage is not mixed, and that licence numbers of porters, coolies, carts, drivers, etc. in noted.

(10) If passengers cannot pay for transport, then see chief ~~RR~~ R.O.

(11) Refugees are expected in all cases to pay for their expenses.

(12) When any one large batch of refugees arrives report to chief R.O. who will arrange collective transport.

(13) Special police, consisting of one head constable and four ordinary constables have been provided for refugee work. They will wear our distinctive arm-bands, and will assist refugees and help in all police matters to maintain order, etc.

(14) In no case must other police officers be troubled.

INDIAN EVACUEE RECEPTION COMMITTEE.

From
F. Harvey, Esq.,
Chairman.

Bangalore (Cantt)
17th April 1942.

To

The Secretary to the Mysore Government,
Public Offices, Bangalore City.

Re: Accommodation for Evacuees.

Dear Sir,

For your information we beg to state that after this Committee was formed early March to deal with Indian and other Eastern Nationals from war zones, we wrote to the President, Bangalore City Municipality asking if his Municipality proposed to do anything in the way of helping with that matter. His reply dated 25th March stated that at the Managing Committee meeting of 19th March the matter had been discussed and it had been resolved that the Municipality was not in a position to under-take such work.

This Committee regretted such a decision and had perforce to contact evacuees who had taken refuge in Mysore State by letter (th addresses being kindly forwarded to us by the Mysore Police) in order to offer them financial aid, advice, and any other help needed.

Now, when the migration from Madras is bringing large numbers of refugees to Bangalore (Cantonment and City) we hesitate to ask Bangalore City Muhicipality again, at this juncture, if it be prepared to help with this very necessary humanitarian work, in case we again get a refusal.

The Committee therefore, decided it was advisable to write to you re: this matter, as your representative, Mr.Narain Rao, Deputy Commissioner, was present at last Sunday's meeting at the Residency when the matter of accommodation for evacuees from Madras was discussed and who promised to furnish particulars as to what accommoda was possible at the City Schools and Colleges. The Committee will be glad to have such information at an early date, and also suggests that the City choultries, hotels and boarding houses etc., might also be listed so that there might be comprehensive list of places for the emergency rush.

Our workers (Reception Officers) at the Cantonment station are finding that many of the refugees proceed to the City, and doubtless many of such have no accommodation to go to, and will be placed in great difficulty in consequence.

We therefore beg to suggest that the City should have a similar organisation as this formed working in close collaboration with us, and with R.O. workers to meet trains both from Madras and Bombay. Mr. K. T. Acharayya, who has been very ~~helpful~~ useful as a voluntary worker for us at the City Railway Station, being capable and enthusiastic, might be engaged by the City organisation as Chief Reception Officer.

We enclose a rough plan of our organisation in Cantonment, and copy of our instructions for our Station R.O.'s.

All expenses are being met by the Government and the R.O.'s and other workers paid.

Yours faithfully,

Sd/- F. Harvey,
Chairman.

REFUGEE ORGANISATION PLAN.

For the Indian Refugee Committee we have the following arrange ments:-

Lists of accommodation in Choultries, schools, etc.

Ten trained Reception Officers at Cantonment R.S. meeting all trains, and assisting refugees as per attached instructions to R.O.'s.

For large transport the assistance of the Commissioner of Police, motor buses, etc.

We are going into the question of food, cooking etc.

Our Office is also dealing with relief (financial, clothes &c

At the station we have banners 10 x 2 feet explaining in English and Tamil that Madrasis wanting a place to stay must see "R.O." at station.

We have issued distinctive "R.O." arm-bands to our station Reception Officers. (Sample enclosed)

We have issued distinctive "R.O." arm-bands to the Head Constable and his four men who were specially sent to assist in refugee work.

In the morning the Chief R.O. must inform all his assistant R.O.'s the probable arrival of first train.

Four men only must do the night duty at present, so that the men get proper rest.

They must have some means of communication with each other either by use of messengers or by telephone.

We have one man, Mr. K. T. Acharya, of Ranga Vilas, near Majestic Cinema, as a voluntary worker at the City Station.

We would draw your attention to the difficulty of working City station on account of the extremely intense blacked out conditions.

Instructions for Indian Reception Officers.

1. When trains come in, move in one body from that part of the train opposite the main exit, and move towards each end, breaking up into groups according to the length of the train covered. If the train comes in at the opposite platform, then act similarly with the exit by the bridge as the central point.

2. Ask all passengers where they are going, including European and Anglo-Indian. (We must be of help to all) See that City, Bombay and Northern bound passengers remain in the train.

3.Those bound for Cantonment must alight.

4. Ask them if they have a place to go to. If they say "yes" then leave them alone. If they say "no" then ask them to stand still on the platform beside their luggage.

5. Military families must be referred to their own military reception officers. If no military R.O. is present, refer the matter to the Chief Indian R.O.

6. Tell the remaining refugees who have no place to go to, if they have luggage in the brake-van, to proceed there, leaving someone in charge of their compartment luggage, taking their luggage receipt with them, find the guard of the station parcel officer, and officially receive their brake-van luggage. On no account must brake-van luggage be taken away without production of this receipt and consent of guard and/or station parcel officer.

7. Collect each party's luggage together in one place. Now you have luggage and party of refugees together.

8. After the whole train has been covered in this way, collect coolies, trucks and get luggage, in every case with the refugee, outside to the road.

9. Find out whether they can pay for transport, and if so, direct them into jutaks or other conveyances, with luggage in other carts or jutkas, etc. always remembering to see that luggage is not mixed and that license numbers of porters, coolies, cartmen, drivers etc. is noted.

10. If passengers cannot pay for transport, then see Chief R.O.

11. Refugees are expected in all cases to pay for their expenses

12. When any one large batch of refugees arrives report to Chief R.O. who will arrange collective transport.

13. Special Police, consisting of one head constable and four ordinary constables have been provided for refugee work. They wil wear our distinctive arm-bands, and will assist refugees and help in all police matters to maintain order &c.

14.In no case must other police officers be troubled.

15. Two R.O.'s have been deputed for registration of ex-Indian evacuees. Civic Guards are registering European and Anglo-India ex-India evacuees. Some will also assist the police and deputed R.O.'s in this work. These deputed R.O.'s must remain at exits.

16. If specially requested by Chief R.O. deal with other than Indian refugees. Otherwise deal only with the latter.

17. The station staff and the railway police know their job better than we do. They must not be hindered or troubled. Leave them to their jobs.

Sir,

In forwarding herewith an extract from the proceedings of a meeting of the Bangalore City Evacuee Reception Committee held in my office on 2-7-1942, I have the honour to state that the want of a separate room in the City Railway Station for the use of the Reception Officers and Members of the Committee who attend the City Railway Station every day is causing much inconvenience particularly to non-official members of the Committee who are rendering honorary service in this behalf. They complain that they are finding it rather awkward to be moving about on the Station Platform and represent that a room with a proper sign-board is very necessary in the Railway Station to attend to the Registration and requirements of the Evacuees arriving in the trains.

2. In this connection, I may say, that as resolved at the meeting held on 21-4-1942, the District Traffic Superintendent, Mysore State Railways, was requested to place one of the rooms within the City Railway Station at my disposal for the above purpose, but a reply was received from the District Traffic Superintendent in his No.E.P. 363 dated 26th April 1942 that no room could be spared.

3. I am in entire agreement with the members about the necessity for a room for the City Evacuee Committee at the Station and request that the Railway Authorities may be kindly instructed to place a room in the City Railway Station at the disposal of the Committee for the purpose referred to above.
